OSBORNE TO RESIGN

OSSINING, N. Y., August 5 .- Warden T. M. Osborne, of Sing Sing, according to reports emanating from the prison to-day, is to retire from office very shortly, and ex-Warden George W. established from official sources in Albany that Kirchwey will return as warden, possibly within three weeks. Mr. Osborne, according to prison attaches, on two occasions lately, has hinted that he will resign. From re that, commenting on the escape of Ernest Leford, hotel swindler, Mr. Osborne told the inmates in a mess-hall speech that unless they behaved better he would resign. Later he is quoted as having told them he found whisky in the prison, and that he was informed that two guns had been secreted there while he was on leave. When one of the prison employees talked of quitting his post, Mr. Osborne, he says protested, "Don't get excited. You boss is coming back." He explained that he meant Dean
